DESCRIPTION

The Tennessee Baptist Children's Home Boys Ranch houses boys ages 11-17. Summer Missionaries should be prepared to serve young men who come from hard places.

Missionaries will serve both residents and house parents by helping provide supervision for boys during on-campus and off-campus activities. Additionally, those assigned will be responsible for coordinating and planning recreational activities.

Being a Boys Ranch Summer Missionary gives students the opportunity for great personal and spiritual growth, as well as an avenue for expanding the Kingdom through ministry to the children in the care of the Tennessee Baptist Children's Home.
