Project ID: Memphis-19-21

Dates: Ongoing

Church: Helping people God's way

Project Description: Church runs a thrift store that helps support over 15 ministries. Church needs help going through donated items, tearing down a wall in the store, going to pick up items, and teams will have an opportunity to serve with some of their ministries they support as well.

Project ID: Memphis-19-02

Dates: Summer 2019

Church: Monument of Love

Project Description:

From the riverfront of the Mighty Mississippi River to the soulful sounds of the Historic Beale Street, pleasing God through community service with Monument of Love Baptist Church will wet your appetite for mission work unlike few opportunities can! If your aim is to make an indelible impact, working shoulders to shoulders with the Monument will begin in the oldest self-contained African American community in America working west toward the Mississippi River. Each step will be filled with acts of kindness to man and worship to God through facility renovations, bible schools, feeding the poor, tutoring underserved students, and evangelizing lost souls. Take your steps of service and sacrifice with us!

Dates: Summer 2019

Church: The Dwelling Place

Project Description: Teams to partner with neighboring churches to conduct outreach and evangelism.

Project ID: Memphis-19-07

Dates: Summer 2019

Church: Monument of Love

Project Description: Teams to conduct Backyard Bible Clubs, Sports Evangelism Camps, Door-to-door witnessing, community beautification, prayer walking. Church is also planning on doing a Summer Learning Academy with an emphasis in reading fluency and comprehension, so teams would be able to help with this ministry. Church also has a ministry to people without homes and ladies of the night. They serve meals, provide clothing, along with gospel sharing. This ministry would only be for older teams (at least high school and above).
