

The University of Tennessee at Martin is home to 6,500 undergrad students and is located in Northwest Tennessee about 125 miles northeast of Memphis, 150 miles northwest of Nashville and 60 miles north of Jackson. The campus sits in the heart of the city with a variety of restaurants and coffee shops within walking distance. UT Martin is known for excellence and outstanding value in undergraduate education. It is one of the five campuses of the University of Tennessee system. Martin is not far from fun day destinations like Discovery Park of America, Reelfoot Lake State Park (TN), and the Land Between the Lakes State Park (KY). The UT Martin campus consists of many clubs and organizations that encourage students to get involved beyond the walls of the classroom. At the BCM, you'll have the opportunity to disciple current followers of Jesus and share the Gospel with students who don't know Him yet.
